Report Highlights:

Effective March 1, 2004, China's AQSIQ requires that all meat, poultry and pork shipments be accompanied by a revised FSIS certificate (FSIS 9295-1). FSIS field offices have been instructed to use the revised form for all shipments to China. USDA revised the form in cooperation with Chinese officials to reduce the incidence of false documents.

In cooperation with China's Administration of Quality Inspection and Quarantine (AQSIQ), USDA's Food Safety Inspection Service (FSIS) revised the Meat and Poultry Export Certificate of Wholesomeness (FSIS 9295-1) in order to reduce the incidence of false documents. The deadline for using this form is March 1, 2004. Shipments of meat, poultry and pork products arriving after March 1, 2004, with any previous versions of the form will not clear Chinese customs. Please contact FSIS field offices for further information.
